

Bailie House Private Estate, Sturminster Marshall, Dorset

The Absolute team spent four weeks renovating the exterior of Bailie House in Sturminster Marshall, a fourteen bedroom Georgian house owned by former Poole speedway rider and present day manager, Neil Middleditch. Neil is well known in the area for his Bailie House warehouse weekend sales.

Absolute is very proud to have worked on such a prestige job and that Neil asked us to work on a house with such history and character. Undertaking ongoing maintenance of Bailie House is a fulfilling, ongoing project. The Bailie House project was featured in the Echo.

The scopes of works included:

- External painting
- Restoration of windows
- Repairs and restoration to cast iron guttering

"I had three quotes to renovate the exterior of my property but the Absolute team won it for me through their professional approach. I have been very pleased with the standard of work, the professional attitude, and the tidiness of the workmen. I would highly recommend them to others and will be using Absolute on an ongoing basis."
